Three judges selected the five candidates for queen in an assembly October 11 in which twenty-two nominees from campus organizations were introduced. Back Into the Years Goes Show of Skits

Friday Evening's Variety Presentation Captures Thrilling Past.

By ALYCE WHITLATCH
Are you ready to travel back twenty-five years? If not, make ready, for that's exactly where the Homecoming variety show is planning to take you.

For the 20's, ladies, you'll need a "flapper" dress and a shingle bob and spit curl hair style. Men, take your raccoon coat and bring your "jalopy" for you and your favorite girl will certainly want to go somewhere and do the Shimmy, Charleston, Bunny-Hug, or Lindy-Hop. Ah...ah...not a flask, either...that went out with the coming of the Republicans.

Now for your latest '30 styles. I would suggest the bright green dress, the one with the extremely uneven hemline. You will be charming as you dance with your sweetheart, clad in "Bellbottom trousers" through the Caribbea, Big Apple, and Continental.

Sometime in the '40's, girls, there'll be an occasion for blue jeans and Dad's shirt. Of course, you'll want to dress for the thrilling occasion of Frankie's appearance. Boys, your "zoot suit" or discarded (?) uniform will be proper, for when she has sufficiently recovered from "the Voice" it's time for the Conga, Jitterbug, or Rhumba.

Cotton prints and jeans are perfect for the latest square dance, so don't forget them.

It's over, and you are asking yourself, "Have classrooms changed so much? What was the extra-extra curricular set-up?" Or... "Are wolves still of the same nature? Do they still whistle at the same sights?" And think to yourself, "The skits were all terrific. If I were judge, to whom would I give first honors?"

But here come the queen and her court. How beautiful they all look! And what a brilliant crown! The variety show will be great, alums...great to recognize varied incidents from "your day."

"Autumn Leaves" Will Be Decoration Theme

Colors of Fall Season Will Be Used in Gymnasium Setting for Dance.

Adapting the season's colors into various scenic designs is the aim of the decoration committee for the Homecoming dance. Jean Short, student chairman, has announced that the theme will be "autumn leaves."

Emphasis will be placed upon creating inside the gymnasium a replica of the wonderful splendor of the outdoors in the fall season. For this feat appropriate shades of crepe paper will cover the downstairs walls, resembling clusters of leaves.

Lighting Is Important
Upstairs will be a resemblance of night with purple and blue crepe acting as the dark sky. The effect of the decorating, moreover, will depend upon the lighting arrangement, for which the committee has made a careful preparation and outline.

Special lighting effects are constructed so as to produce scintillating effects, creating illusions of the sunshine seeping through the branches of a tree and partially shining on clusters of leaves. A special decoration will be that of the door, which will be covered with purple crepe paper in the resemblance of velvet. A single spot light will be focused upon the door.

Orchestra Will Be on North
Russ Carlyle and his orchestra will be placed toward the north wall, and tables again will be brought up to the upstairs balconies.

The committee has also offered several "Caution" notices. There is to be no smoking on the dance floor and no bottles are to be carried out onto the floor.

Former Graduates Bring Their Bands for Parade

A number of recent graduates of the music department will bring their high school bands back to their alma mater for the Homecoming activities.

The bands which will be here to participate in the Homecoming parade and contest for bands are Maryville, Fillmore, Savannah, Gower, Hamilton, Burlington Junction, Graham, Craig, Princeton, Westboro, Oregon, Kliff City, Maryville, Grant City, Mount City, Hopkins, Clarksdale, Maitland, and Lenox, Iowa.

Of interest in the Homecoming news is the fact that the following bands are directed by alumni and students of the College: Maryville, Andrew McCrae, director; Fillmore, Richard Huff, director; Gower, Bradley Moore, director; Burlington Junction, Robert Tebow, director; Craig, Marion Sherer, director; Westboro, Bob Ward, director; Oregon, Rex Moyer, director; Mount City, Roy Jenkins, director; Hopkins, Mrs. Helen Burris, director; Maitland, Herbert Hackman, director; Lenox, Iowa, Robin Snyder, director.

Millers Have New Son
Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Miller of College Heights are parents of an 8 1/2 lb. boy, James Robert, born at the Reid Hospital, Bethany, Monday, October 9.

He's Tops in Entertainment

Russ Carlyle and his orchestra will play at the Homecoming dance Saturday night at 9 a. m. Noted for his varied form of entertainment, Russ ranks high in the field of popular entertainers. Tickets for the dance are $2.50 per couple, $1.50 single.

Annual Homecoming Dance Features 'Romantic' Russ Carlyle

Dr. Harry G. Dildine Will Address A. A. U. P.

At the next meeting of the American Association of University Professors, Dr. Harry G. Dildine, of the social science department, will address the group on the subject "China's Response to the Communistic Approach." The meeting will be held at Dream Kitchen, Monday, October 23.

Dr. Irene M. Mueller is president of the organization; Miss Effie Mae Morrey, secretary; and Mr. Myron P. Rose, treasurer.

Committees for 1950-1951 are as follows: Program, Professors Dora B. Smith, F. B. Houghton, John L. Smay, Harry G. Dildine, Mattie M. Dykes, June Cozine; Membership, Professors Estella Bowman, John L. Harr, Sterling S. Surrey, Bonnie Magill; Time and Place, Professors J. Gordon Strong, Myrl D. Long, Dale J. Blackwell, Joseph A. Dreps, Jessie Jutten, William T. Garrett, Mary E. Keith, Mabel Cook; Publicity, Professors Effie Mae Morrey, Violette Hunter, Anne Arnold, Robert R. Gaylor.

Art Class Displays Its Articles in Show Case

The current display in the show cases on the second floor pertain to crafts and handwork in the art department. The metal plaques framed in wood, celotex, or other materials are the work of the "Design in Art Industries" class. The class used sticks, fountain pen caps, toothbrushes, and other unusual articles as tools in this work on the copper alloy.

Finished pieces of sculpture by Jewel Rice, Jim Hill, Charlene Welsh, and Andra Cornelius are also displayed.

Popular Orchestra Offers Varied Entertainment; Stars Band Leader.

Russ Carlyle, maestro of "Romantic Music," and his orchestra are going to play at the Homecoming dance this Saturday night. With him will come Janie Kelly, vocalist, the Melloraks, a quartet, and the Coachmen Choir, plus a multitude of numbers geared for pleasurable entertainment.

Captioned "America's Newest Singing Star" and reputed to be the "most handsome band leader" in the States, Russ Carlyle has captured popular attention in his ability to contribute a complete floor show in addition to the music.

Use Musical Playlets
Aside from the many vocal numbers which have proved ideal as show numbers, Russ and his sidemen and vocalists have worked out several musical playlets. Typical of these showmanly efforts are "John's Other Wife's Other John" and the "Skunk Hollow Follies." In the first, Russ and his musical cohorts take an audience behind the scenes in radio, enacting out a comedy version of the much maligned soap opera, replete with sound effects. During the "Skunk Hollow Follies" the band take out their Ozark garb and go into a hillbilly production that rivals Sadie Hawkins' Day in the comic strip, "Lil Abner," for laughs.

Leading the "Song Parade" is the leader himself, who has been termed by critics and the public as one of America's brightest singing stars. Besides offering his own particular pleasing brand of song styling, Russ presents realistic imitations of the singing greats of the past twenty years.

Gala Affairs Give Exciting Schedule

Humorous Variety Show Is Opening Presentation Friday Evening.

Parade Is Next Morning

Football Game Highlights Saturday Afternoon; Russ Carlyle's Band Will Climax Festivities.

Maryville celebrates its forty-fourth Homecoming this week end. And the College is utilizing the experience gained from the previous annual event to bring to alumni, students, friends, and everyone—the finest in Homecoming thrills, entertainment, and enjoyment.

Virtually all events since school began have focused upon this important week end. Organizations have been planning for many weeks their floats, housing decorations and alumni functions, to mention only a few of the many activities.

Variety Show Is Friday Night
Now the long-awaited celebration begins Friday night with a variety show at 7:30 p. m., spectacular last year to all who were lucky to get seats. This year's event promises to out do all previous shows. One significant factor prevalent this year is the intensive competitive spirit aroused among the organizations for first prize and five points toward the supremacy cup. Student chairman John Pope and faculty advisor Mr. Robert Gee, are largely responsible for its production.

As has been the policy, each skit must be developed about the central theme which is "25 Years of Bearcat Supremacy." Last year the Independent Club won first honors with a "49er" slogan depicting a gold miner's wealth and how it created a school. The ironic interpretation of the school was at its best in humor.

Pep Rally Follows
Immediately following the variety show is the pep rally, an event scheduled to be more realistic, interesting, and emotional than former attempts. Marge Graham, student chairman, and Mrs. Gee, faculty adviser, have formed an inviting program.

A Homecoming, of course, wouldn't be genuine without the parade—something which, according to Maryville history, stresses quantity and quality and promotes a variety of floats, jalopies, and clowns in all aspects of humor, originality and beauty.

Parade Is Planned
Through the combined efforts of Larry Krause and Mr. David Crozier, the intricate details of the parade organization have been mapped out into a carefully sketched procession. The committee, moreover, have asked that spectators co-operate by allowing sufficient room on the streets and that drivers not double park.

They wish to remind all spectators that the parade will pass through many areas of the town and not just along main street; therefore, there will be ample room to see the procession if every space is utilized.

Special Functions Are Ready
Another important activity will be the functions for returning alumni. Many organizations are sponsoring breakfasts, luncheons or dinners for their former members. Featured will be the "M" Club breakfast in honor of the football team of 1925.

As always, through the efforts of a great group of men, Maryville will present its 1950 Bearcats in a football struggle with the "Presbies" of the College of Emporia.

And then, in completion of the day's activities, and staging a dynamic climax to the already gala week end, will be the Homecoming dance in the gymnasium, featuring Russ Carlyle and his orchestra. Beginning at 9 p. m., the evening's program will also include a presentation of Homecoming trophies, giving a fortunate organization the supremacy cup until the celebration of 1951.

Dr. J. W. Jones Attends Washington Conference

Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, attended a conference on higher education in the National Service called by the American Council on Education last week end. The conference was held at the U. S. Chamber of Commerce Building in Washington, D. C.

Among the speakers presenting various phases of the relation of higher education to the national service were Raymond Walters, president of the University of Cincinnati; Robert L. Clark, chief of the Manpower Division, National Security Resources Board; and Major General Lewis B. Hershey.

They Outline the Highlights for Festive Week End

Throughout the fall quarter the general Homecoming committee has been planning the many events which this week end will make important in the annals of Maryville history. From left to right are Sergio Fries, Jim Montague, John Pope, Johnny Carlson, Chairman, Herbie Awe, Jack Miller, Vivian Kowitz, Kenny Ausmus, Marge Graham, Bud Carmichael, Thesis Robinson, and Gean Porter. Those not shown are Wilma Watkins, Jewell Rice, Agneta Wohlfahrt, Betty Jane Tiegan, Norma Smith, Jean Short, Martha Strickler, Larry Krause, Joan Harper, and Fran Richards.

YOU'RE NOT SO SMALL

You may not have realized it, freshmen, but your highest hurdle has been jumped these first few weeks of school. Surely, by now, you have experienced the panicky feeling of associating the wrong name with a fellow classman or faculty member or have stupidly asked some naive irrelevant question.

Of course, I might add that at a recent freshman mixer a few of our most sophisticated and worldly students were believed to be freshmen, while some of you 'til naive freshmen were asked, "From where did you transfer?" or "How many years have you been in school?"

These two blunt sentences were not asked to buoy anyone's ego to the height where he could safely say, "Why come to school? I know it all!" but only to help you realize that you have a great deal to "live up to" in college, and that you are expected to do a great deal more here than in high school, assuming that some of you went through high school on a breeze, as so many of us did!

Note taking, reading, and "moving with the mass," have been most of your college career so far, and you may feel that you are just another "unnoticeable."

However, you will never feel more noticed or conspicuous than when some professor throws two pop quizzes on you in two days and you find yourself having to sit for fifty minutes staring at a group of terms you cannot define in the vaguest manner. Blank paper just doesn't look very enlightened with only your name glaring from the top to mar its whiteness. After an experience like this you need never wonder about being recognized by your instructor—you will never be forgotten!

So whether you're a brain or a dimwit you need never worry or despair, for you're not so small!

IF IT'S UN PLUS YOU

This year marks the fifth annual observance of UN Week, sponsored by the American Association for the United Nations, the National Broadcasting Company and National Education Association, with the cooperation of more than 80 national organizations.

AAUN's national UN Week Committee is headed by Harry A. Bullis, chairman of the Board of General Mills, with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Ambassador Warren R. Austin as honorary chairmen.

UN Week will reach its climax on October 24, which has been declared by the UN as official UN Day throughout the world. The UN keynote is "There Shall Be Peace." In the United States, arrangements for the Day are under the direction of the National Citizens' Committee for UN Day, 816 21st Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as chairman. Mayors and governors throughout the country have been asked to issue proclamations for UN Day.

The role of the individual in promoting the success of the UN is a clear-cut one. Since the individual determines public opinion, as such he has real responsibility for the success or failure of the UN, particularly since the U. S. has a unique position of leadership within the UN. Each individual can be an effective UN agent—in promoting, within his family, social and work circles, UN understanding, UN principles, and UN activity.

There shall be peace—if it's UN plus YOU.

Dear Mom

Dear Mom:

Gosh, everything seems to be jumping up at the same time—Homecoming and all. I think that my subjects are suffering a little, but then they're used to that.

I've got a snap course this quarter; it really knows how to snap. I went to class yesterday and thought I had the wrong book—what I read and what he said seemed like two different things.

But I don't say much when I'm ignorant as to what goes on in class. In fact, I don't do any talking. We were having a discussion in history a few days back and the prof asked me why I didn't contribute. I told him that silence was golden and that I was trying to make good.

I guess that remark's as bad as that of the freshman who said that Hadaool got its name because they had 'a call it something.

But don't worry, Mom, I'm not studying too hard; I'm taking part in a few extracurricular activities, too. I went golfing last Saturday and broke 73. That's an awful lot of clubs to break, but they're the school's.

And I joined an organization too. The trouble of that is in initiation. "What should I wear," I ask the president. "Nothing," he says. Funny initiation; I hope "god" doesn't mind.

I'm having difficulty in some classes though. I always seem to do all right socially, but this book homework just yesterday my humanities teacher asked me what a basillia was, and not having ever eaten one I didn't know, naturally. But I guess that all comes with experience, not by study.

You may as well know that I've taken up smoking now. This going to school is a nerve racking thing. I know that last summer you asked me if I smoked and that I said "No, I don't smoke cigarettes," and you said, "Yes, I know. All you do is light them and they smoke themselves."

I won't be home this week end Mom; it's Homecoming and I don't think I would be very wise to be a "quintessence student" this particular time. Besides, with what they're going to have here this week end in Homecoming celebrations, I would be a fool not to stay. See you in two weeks.

All my love,
Romeo

Homecoming Thought

To many alumni, Homecoming 1950 will mean that they may see again the person, whose outstanding personality meant so much to them during college years and later.

President Emeritus Uel W. Lamkin, president of this College from 1921 to 1945, is a man whose record of achievement in the field of education is remarkable. More important, however, is his record of friendships.

Since illness came to him in April, 1949, alumni from all parts of the world have expressed in many ways their respect and love for him who aided and assisted them in earlier days.

Mrs. Lamkin says "their thoughtfulness is appreciated."

Drum Major Bob Tebow Leads Homecoming Parade

What Style! What class! The band presents another new attraction!

Leading the Green and White Marchers in the Homecoming parade this year will be Bob Tebow, attired in a new drum major uniform. On the front plaque of the white suit which is trimmed in green is an elaborately embroidered bearcat emblem designed by the College art department. A typical tall white "bearskin" hat tops off the outfit.

Bob, the drum major, is a senior at the College and is director of the Burlington Junction high school band which will also appear in the Homecoming festivities.

Bearcats of '25 Will Receive Hearty Welcome

The victorious Bearcat glidders of 1925 will receive a hearty welcome during Homecoming festivities October 20-21. A full schedule of activities has been planned for these guests of honor.

After the Homecoming parade, a luncheon is to be held. From the luncheon the guests of honor will go to Memorial Stadium for the clash between Maryville and Emporia. The former Bearcats will sit in a section reserved for them, their families and friends. During half-time ceremonies, President J. W. Jones will introduce the former Bearcats to the crowd.

In the evening, the men are to be guests at the Homecoming Dance in the main gymnasium.

Willoughby, Lexington; Kenneth Fouts, Jefferson City; Russell Hamilton, Downers Grove, Illinois; Theodore Search, Chester, Illinois; Sam England, Franklin Park, Illinois; Orville Hedges, Topeka, Kansas; Morris Chick, Maryville; David Eads, Columbia; Ralph Wilson, Wichita, Kansas; and Charles Graham, Raytown.

Religious Emphasis Week Will Be Observed Soon

Religious Emphasis Week will be celebrated again this year November 5-9. It is a week dedicated to the students in order to stress the importance of religion to them.

The annual affair is under the direction of Dr. J. Gordon Strong, chairman and executive secretary-treasurer. Charles Hinchey and Oretta Knipmeyer are student vice chairmen, and Jessie Weddle is the recording secretary.

Individual conferences and group seminars will be important activities during the week as well as general assemblies. Those to speak are Dr. Hutton Smith, associate professor, Washington University, St. Louis; Dr. Carl C. Bracy, chancellor, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Lincoln, Nebraska; and the Reverend Maur Burbach of Conception Seminary, Conception, Missouri.

Alpha Sigmas Have New Actives

Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority announces the names of two Maryville girls who have become active members. The two girls who joined the active ranks on Sunday, October 8, are Joyce Bailey and Alice Irene Ward.

The Stroller

The Stroller has been told that he leads a hard life. You know how it is when you try to be in on everything everywhere. There will be a few close calls.

Beverly Crane and Grace Beeks will testify that life is rugged, too, especially when stunts in physical education don't work out right.

Lois Long took a rattlesnake with her to Maryville High the other day. Since then taxi drivers are never around when she needs them.

Charlene Jones laments that three meals a day and four hours in the Bookstore will make one fat, freshman beanies worn three weeks will turn hair green, and sleep walking on oiled roads will soil the feet.

Max Kinney indicates that he will not become a permanent member of the 4 o'clock women's physical education class since he departed so abruptly the other day.

The Stroller is looking for a compass to give to La Ru Butler who has difficulty deciding where her goal is on the hockey field.

While the other 50a history students read about the colonization of America, industrious Slim Tanner brushes up on the Civil War—just to be prepared for the next quarter.

Dolara Reed is taking French so that she can write to Bill in that language. She says the vocabularies are becoming more interesting all the time.

Can you imagine Carolyn Ward without Wayne Percell? Or vice versa?

The Stroller has heard that Jimmy Vann's cafe has several attractions but, mainly, one tall, handsome helper.

In the interest of girls who live in the dorm and like to sleep after hours, it has been suggested that Belle Sickels and Pat McClaren either put in a wireless set or buy carrier pigeons to be used for communication between their room and the outside world in the wee hours of the night.

The Stroller wonders whether those sixty girls' names gathered by Frank Bollinger, Lynn Leffert and some other members of the M Club were really for initiation or to fill depleted address books.

Life can be beautiful. Rodrigo Solera thinks it would be even more so if his friend, Richardo Lopez, would adopt a laissez-faire policy concerning Rod's romantic life.

The Stroller nods with pleasure at the selection of the Homecoming queen candidates: Mary Bauman, Nadine Cramer, Polly Cramer, Mary Beth Fries, and Joyce Smith.

Jack Lasley thought the other day in biology that Dr. Irene Mueller was going to make a fire out of the wood exhibits and that it would be fun to have a wiener roast inside.

The Stroller knows that things like midterm tests and pink slips are necessary evils. He just doesn't want too many.

He expresses his sympathy to the Harr family's cat which also has close calls. Little Pat has reported that the pet recently fell into the stool and had to be rescued by his father. Far enough.

Election of Homecoming Queen Is Today

Her sponsor is the Sigma Sigma Sorority. Walter Stanton is managing her campaign.

Polly Cramer

Petite Polly Cramer is another representative of the Cramer family from Pasadena, Texas. This smooth senior has black hair, brown eyes and has reached the height of five feet five inches. She has been the Rose of Sigma Tau, Alpha Sig Sweetheart and Miss Maryville at the American Royal.

She is president of the Green and White Peppers, pledge captain of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and a member of Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics fraternity.

Polly is the candidate of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity. Her campaign managers are Bill Ogden and Lyle Martin.

Joyce Smith

Maryville's own candidate is demure Joyce Smith whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Smith. This blue-eyed blonde is five feet five inches in height.

Joyce is secretary of the senior class; corresponding secretary of Sigma Sigma Alpha sorority; secretary of Kappa Delta Pi, honor society in education; reporter of Phi Omega Pi, honorary business fraternity; a member of the social committee and the Spanish Club. She is a business major.

The senior class is sponsoring her with Jim Montague as campaign manager.

Other candidates and their sponsors were as follows: Betty Curry, Home Economics Club; Marilyn Thompson, Residence Hall; Barbara Coy, Junior Class; Charlene Kline, Women's Athletic Association; Marjorie Graham, Industrial Arts Club; Norma Smith, Cooperative Independent Club; Betty Conrad, Kappa Delta Pi honor society; Roberta Walker, Barkate pep organization; Barbara Hudson, Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority; Anita Pink, College Band and Tower Club; Marilyn Alexander, M. Club; Jo

Magnuson, Dance Club: Lillian Mantz, Alpha Phi Omega fraternity; Jean Long, Green and White Peppers pep organization; Sarabel Davis, Sigma Phi Dolphin Swim Club; Jo Ann Lynch, Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity; and Jean Bressler, Association for Childhood Education.

The judges were Mrs. James Cool, Mr. Charlie Baumil and Mr. Dor Roebby. Joyce Bailey, 1949 Homecoming queen, gave the candidates her best wishes.

The "Ag" Club also had a candidate, Betsy Smith, who for various reasons did not participate in the finals. It is believed Dr. Sterling Surrey, chairman of the assembly committee, was really her sponsor. Since she could not be reached for an interview after the program, it is believed she returned to her herd on the College farm.

Art 11 Students Attend Movies at Horace Mann

Two movies, "The Brush in Action" and "The Making of a Mural," were recently shown in the Horace Mann auditorium to the Art 11 students. The technique and use of water colors was shown in "The Brush in Action."

"The Making of a Mural" depicted Thomas Hart Benton's designing and painting a mural. This technical movie short went through all the steps in construction of the mural down to the actual completion. Mr. Benton, a leading American and Missourian artist, painted the mural for Harzfeld's Department Store in Kansas City where it is now hanging.

Writers' Club Meets

The Writers' Club met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Mattie Dykes. Thursday night has been selected as the regular meeting night instead of Tuesday night. New members and visitors are always welcome.

Stanley Dale will accompany Lew Wallace, alumnus to Homecoming.

Enjoying Maggie and Jiggs With the Alpha Sigs

All of the gang was gathered at Dinty Moore's—yes, sir, all enjoyed the antics of Maggie and Jiggs and their daughter Rosie at the Alpha Sigma Alpha rush party held at the Maryville Country Club.

Delta Sig Pledges Are Taken on a Sea Cruise

Ship ahoy, mates, out of the way. Land-lubbers, and away to the Delta Cruise of a lifetime. October 5 was the date of departure on the globe-encircling tour. The D. S. E. ship anchored in the harbors of Chile, the Sandwich Islands, Ireland, and, of course, home port in the United States.

Serving as ports of call were the homes of Mrs. R. T. Wright, Mrs. Ramona Mattson, Mrs. Sterling Surrey, and the Sigma Tau Gamma chapter room. Appropriate foods were served in each country. Joan Cutler was the mistress of ceremonies and introduced the harmony of "The Three Shells and a Nut," the spine-tingling mystery of "The Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter," and other acts.

As the evening drew to a close, everyone formed a friendship circle and the active Delta Sigs demonstrated their particular sailor's knot in the silk scarves they gave to the rushees. Port sailor hats, good luck symbols, and "lifesavers" were also given as favors.

Barbara Pearson, Anita, Iowa; Carol Ann Roberts, Westboro; Dorothy Stanton, College Springs, Iowa; Kathryn Whistler, Ridge-way; Marthalene Morris, King City; Treva Thompson, Cainesville; and Norma Jean Hawkins, Fairfax, were pledged in an initiation ceremony, October 10.

All the Delta Sigs are working feverishly on Homecoming plans. Dorothy Jean McCartney is in charge. Carolyn Turner is busy with house decoration ideas; Rosette Reed is working as chairman of the float committee. Joan Cutler has the difficult task of drafting the skit for the Variety Show.

Alpha Phi Omega Gets Ready for Homecoming

Work on the Student Directory will be completed by Homecoming. Bob Osgood reported to the Beta Upsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega at its fourth meeting of the year, October 10.

Six members of the organization will assist the Senate operate the concession stands at the Homecoming game.

Members of the new pledge class who attended a smoker that was held, September 27, at Jimmy Vann's Cafe, were present at the meeting. Bill Gram, Bill Yauck, and Jim Montague make reports on the Homecoming house, float and skit, respectively.

Officers of the organization this year include the following: Bill Pease, president; Bob Osgood, vice president; Joe Collier, secretary; Don Davis, treasurer; Jim Montague, historian; and Lou Haning, reporter. Kenny Ausmus is chairman of the membership committee. Bill Gram is pledge master of the chapter.

Rockport Teachers Will Be Here. Nadine Royston and Jo Ann Garner former students who teach in the elementary grades at Rockport will be here for Homecoming.

Encircling the Globe With the Delta Sigs

With sailor hats bobbing, the Delta Sigs and their rushee guests line up for a bit of fun after a cruise around the world in the U. S. D. S. E. Their globe-encircling tour included Chile, the Sandwich Islands, Ireland, and the home port in United States. Home port or the Delta Drug Store, where the picture was taken, was the Sigma Tau Gamma chapter room.

Tri Sigs Have Western Style Party for Rushees

The members of the Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma were really shooting it up at "The Bar Sigma Ranch" last Tuesday evening, October 3, at the Dream Kitchen.

Rough cowboys of various descriptions came drifting into the Sigma Sigma Sigma chapter room. From there, all wandered to the Dream Kitchen.

Everyone tried her luck in burp sack races and other games. Following that "a five foot nine" nose that shines, face that looked like Frankenstein, the Mistress of Ceremonies, Isabel Nash, began to broadcast a radio program on station "STINK."

The program consisted of the Tass Saus sextet, The Shooting of Dan McGrew, Ma and Pa skits, Opa Fries and her accordion, Jo Magnuson and her "Uke" and a variety of commercials.

A candlelight service brought the evening to a close. The rushees were told what Sigma Sigma Sigma means. Each member gave a rushee a friendship ring.

Betty Wilson was in charge of rushing for this year.

Ten New Sig Tau Pledges Start Fraternity Duties

Ten Sig Tau pledges underwent the first of their pledging ceremonies after the pledge fathers were appointed at the first fraternity meeting Wednesday, October 1.

Before the meeting was adjourned, the fathers presented pledge pins to their sons.

The pledges for this fall are Bill Davis, Bill Burnam, Burk Tassel, Tom Carver, Bob Osgood, Kenneth Lane, John Hoerath, John "Moon" Mullins, Jack Bright, and Bob Bagby.

Bill Davis was appointed to manufacture those "two feet pieces of misery" commonly called paddles. There are several veteran paddle wielders back with the Taus this year, and several beginners from last year's pledge class. Most of the activities will want from paddle swinging practice, as this class of pledges appears well behaved.

The Sig Taus welcome Dick Klass into the Theta chapter. Dick is a transfer student from Teachers College at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The Taus are looking to Dick for some new ideas for pledge duties.

Ag Club Works on Its Float for Homecoming

Members of the Ag Club met last night at the College farm, where they worked on their float to be entered in the Homecoming Parade. Last year the club's float placed first and was awarded the grand prize.

Those on the float committee, this year, are the following: Don Grace, Ross Wilson, Jim Montague, Jim Thompson and Howard Breitenbucher. Several new members attended the meeting.

Plans for the annual barn warming will be made at the next meeting. The function is staged by the members of the club and features a square dance and singing.

Phi Sig Fraternity Abolishes Paddles; Has New Merit System

Independents Will Sport "Navy Blue and Gold"

Independent Club members will soon be sporting new jackets bearing their emblem. The organization, which this year is much larger and important, decided upon a navy blue jacket with a gold upon black emblem.

Although pins are not required to be purchased by members, President Walt Stanton has urged all Independents to order one along with the jacket.

Homecoming preparations, under the leadership of Oretta Knipmeyer are being worked out eagerly. Last year the Club shared the supremacy cup with the Tri Sigs, but this year the members are attempting to obtain the trophy exclusively.

No chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon has taken a large stride forward in fraternity circles by abolishing the paddle as a means of indoctrinating pledges during their eleven weeks of pledgship.

After much work under the direction of Terry Noah, pledgemaster, the Phi Sigs arrived at a decision to outlaw the fraternity paddle as the way to keep initiates up to par during their apprenticeship to the fraternity.

Replacing the stick will be a system of merit. On this basis the pledges will receive points for class, church and assembly attendance.

The fraternity, by doing this, intends for a greater sense of brotherhood to be established among the active members of the chapter and pledges. It is also hoped that there will be a stronger bond of friendship between Greek and non-affiliated students on the campus.

The paddle, in a few instances, has been the source of physical disabilities to some men pledging fraternities. Although this has never happened to any man in Nu Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon, this step is taken in the sense of preventing any such unfortunate mishaps on the campus of Northwest Missouri State College.

Green and White Peppers Initiate New Members

Twenty-eight girls were initiated into the Green and White Peppers Thursday, October 5.

Phi Sigs Hold Informal Dance in Chapter Room

Putting their chapter room to good use the Phi Sigs held an informal dance as the fraternity's warmup function of the year.

The social committee of the fraternity, under the direction of Johnnie Carlson in the absence of Bob Guthland, planned the program. Carroll Wilkerson acquired the refreshments, Curt Gaffney was in charge of music, and Bill Shell was the man of few words at the intermission.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Grube and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garrett were chaperons.

Music was furnished by the Wick Sound System.

The Phi Sigs held the informal dance at their chapter room Friday, September 29, from 8:30 to 11.

J. Weddle, L. Dubowsky Head Future Teachers

At a special meeting of the Future Teachers of America, October 9, the following officers were elected: Jesse Weddle, president; Lee Dubowsky, vice president; Roberta Berry, secretary; Joyce Lightfoot, treasurer.

Mrs. Graham Goes to Warrensburg. Mrs. Avis L. Graham was in Warrensburg October 2-4 representing the College at the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers Workshop. Missouri is one of nine states making up the Midwest District of the National Parent Teacher Organization. There are four other districts.

Singing the Old Songs With the Sigma Sigs

Members of the Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma held their rush party at the Dream Kitchen. The theme was the Bar Sigma Ranch. In the background is the Bar used in the play "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." Jo Magnuson, center, is playing her "uke" while the group sings some familiar songs.

ASA Entertains Rushees With a Party at Dinty's

The Maryville Country Club was splitting its sides on Wednesday evening, October 4, when the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority entertained 56 rushees with a party at "Dinty Moore's."

Maggie and Jiggs greeted their guests, who arrived in jalopies, as the player-piano set the pace for the hilarious capers to follow.

Rastus and Sambo created much excitement and were the center of attraction, while a free lunch was served by the singing waiters from the bar.

After the guests had eaten and were comfortable, the floor show was presented. Maribelle Gee gave an original reading extending gracious hospitality. Nadine (Sambo) Cramer beguiled the crowd with two numbers from blues land. Spike Tonfirst and He Sont were just two members of a televised baseball game with the sportscaster, Jean Short, relating the details.

The three Jiggerates, Peg Cross, Shirley Jennings and Vernelle Cox, wowed the crowd with their song, a dance version of "Old Piano Roll Blues" and "Five Foot Two." Jiggs's own daughter, Joanne (Rosie) Masters concluded the floor show, singing several original comedy numbers. Martha Ingles and Sue Condon interrupted between numbers with slap stick jokes.

Group singing of old favorites climaxed the party. Rushees were presented with figurine pixies and balloons as favors.

Several alumnae, Mrs. Luther Belcher, Mrs. Jack Otte, Mrs. Turner Tyson, Mrs. William Wells, and the Misses Jane Bovard and Beverly Johnson, and the sorority sponsors, Mrs. John Mauzey and Miss Jessie Jutten, helped make the party complete.

Ten Phi Sigma Pledges Take Respective Duties

Ten men began the duties of pledges, Wednesday night, October 4, as prospective members of Nu Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon.

The names and home addresses of these men are as follows: Tom Walker, Redding, Iowa; J. D. Volk, Gallatin; Francis Turner, Savanah; Raymond (Hank) Prentiss, Mt. Airy, Iowa; Duane Newman, Essex, Iowa; Jim Montgomery, Maryville; Max Miller, Graham; Leonard Gercken, Atchison, Kansas; Dale Rowley, Atlantic, Iowa; Cliff Thompson, Shenandoah, Iowa.

Coming up in the near future will be a dance in their honor.

After the meeting, a group picture was taken for the Tower. Honorary members present were Dr. Sterling Surrey, Mr. Clifford Kensing, Miss Effie Mae Morrey.

Johnny Carlson Becomes New Veep for Phi Sigs

Bob Guthland, vice president of Nu Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon, recently resigned the post after an operation at Wadsworth General Hospital at Wadsworth, Kansas.

The capable Guthland gave for his reasons of resignation, his enforced convalescence, absence from school and the burden of making up work on his return to school.

Unanimously elected to fill the spot vacated by Bob is Johnny Carlson from Shenandoah, Iowa. Johnny is an energetic lad who has assumed the work of vice president and is the guide for all social activities of the fraternity.

series of popularity polls, conducted by trade papers such as The Billboard, Variety, Town Beat, and Metronome, which was quite a feat in that he topped a band singers at that time as Frank Sinatra, Dick Haymes and Andy Russell. Early in 1941, Russ had achieved such prominence that he organized his own crew. His crew as a band leader was cut short only a year after, when he entered service. During his three years in the Army, he served at various stations throughout the United States, mainly in Special services, where his voice entertained thousands of G. I. S. via radio and in personal appearances.

Russ re-formed his band immediately after his discharge in September, 1945. Since that time "The Romantic Style of Russ Carlyle" has been heard from coast to coast, from such outstanding spots as the New Kenmore Hotel, Albany, N. Y.; the Greenwich Village Inn, New York; the Blue Moon, Wichita; the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City, Mo.; the Rainbow Ballroom, Denver; a successful tour which culminated in a six-month engagement at the Blackhawk Restaurant, Chicago, Illinois.

Russ Carlyle's vocalizing played an important role in the rapid rise of the Barron band. While playing at the Southern Tavern, Cleveland, Barron was heard in New York City during a radio show by Maria Kramer, manager of the Edison Hotel, New York. "This builder of names immediately booked the unknown crew into the Gotham hostelry, from where Russ and his distinctive vocalizing were given national radio airing. Officials of RCA-Victor records signed the band to a Bluebird recording pact, in which Russ figured prominently. The Barron platters which sold heaviest were those like "At a Perfunctory Counter," and "I Hadn't Any-one Till You," all of which carried Russ' voice.

Emporia Accepts Maryville's Challenge for Afternoon Fray Saturday

Milner's Spirited Bearcats Are Eager

Tradition Burden Factors Heavily on Team Urging Annual Football Win.

Game Is Non-Conference

Justification for Last Year's 21-0 Defeat Is Emporians' Aim; Squad Picks Poor Time for Revenge.

This year must also be a continuation of a tradition begun following the war. Maryville in battle this Saturday afternoon against the College of Emporia accepts the new burden of not being defeated in a Homecoming encounter since 1946 when this annual fall affair really took form.

Following the war years the College rejuvenated a policy long forgotten by Bearcats—that of having Homecoming.

The affair in 1946 proved stimulating to the football players and Maryville trotted home a 7-0 winner over the Springfield Teachers. The next year, however, the Bearcats were stymied into a scoreless tie with the Indians from Cape Girardeau.

Extra Point Wins Game. Kirkville appeared in 1948 for that gala Homecoming and went home very unhappy because of a 13-12 score imposed upon them by the accuracy of one extra point.

Again the Indians invaded green and white territory for another Homecoming battle last year and were revengefully defeated 41-14 by a desperately energetic football team seeking a conference championship.

And this year it is the College of Emporia, a non-conference opponent who played the Bearcats last year in early season and lost 21-0. This year they will have to face a more spirited and a more energetic squad than they encountered last year.

Passing Plays Are Important

A combination of Richey-James in passing plays was too much for the Emporians last year, and with Coach Milner stressing an aerial attack with Richey throwing again, the College of Emporia is expected to meet a fate similar to that which sent them down into defeat in '49. Warrensburg, reputed to be the powerhouse of the MIAA, barely edged out the Emporians in a 26-20 contest. The Mules previously had beaten Southwestern Kansas 49-7, and since that game have taken St. Benedict's 20-6 and Cape Girardeau 20-2 to remain undefeated. Thus far the College of Emporia has been the only team to score more than one touchdown; it has also been the only team to allow Warrensburg more than twenty points.

Max Hochenauer Is New Mayor of Men's Quads

One of the most refreshing political figures to appear on this campus is Max Jacobs Hochenauer, better known to some as the "Wabash Cannonball." Max acquired his fame by being elected mayor of the Quads in a recent election. Max came to Maryville from Christian Brothers High, St. Joseph. At Christian Brothers he participated on the football teams and during his last two years was named to the all-star teams. He continued his football career here and is now a stellar guard for the Bearcat eleven. Max also kicks off for Maryville quite often.

To help Max plan the extensive programs for the boys at the Quads, a council consisting of two boys from each Quad was also elected. The councilmen are Gaylord "Whitey" Meyers and Bud Carmichael from Quad II. Jim Montague and Mahlon Hewitt from Quad III, Bob Hemenway and Marlin Carey from Quad IV, and Bob Osgood and Carter Bodkins from Quad V. Mr. Lon E. Wilson, dean of men, is the advisor.

Perhaps inspired by the redecorated Quads, the council and mayor have started right in on their work. The first big project is something for Homecoming and you can bet that it will be something good. This is the first time in two years that the Quad has elected a mayor and councilmen and they promise to be a fine organization. The whole purpose of the organization is to "help the boys in the Quad."

MIAA Standings

MIAA grid teams this week end play non-conference tilts, but the following week end these games are scheduled: October 27: Maryville vs. Cape Girardeau; October 28: Springfield vs. Rolla; Kirkville vs. Warrensburg.

Girls Play in Classic Fall Sport

Field hockey has taken great strides forward since the days when the rules stated that "no player shall wear hat pins or sailor or other hard-brimmed hat." Players need no longer be concerned about that "one unforgivable sin of a skirt which dips at the back," nor is there any need for them to remember that "knickerbockers and not petticoats should be worn under the skirts." Hockey has kept abreast of the times both as to rules and as to costume, and its ever increasing popularity proves that it is winning the place in the hearts of American women. Clockwise in the picture, beginning at center foreground, are Marge Graham, Sarabel Davis, Charlotte Turner, Jeanne Overstreet, and Mary Lou Neville.

Conference Opener Is Lost to Rolla

Favored Miners Overpower Maryville 14-0; Goal Is Trophy Again.

Rolla's mighty championship team rolled on to another victory Saturday, October 7, by downing Maryville 14-0 in their first conference battle. Throughout the muddy contest the favored Miners had no difficulty in sustaining the Maryville air attack while they pounded away at the Bearcat line.

The Miners, capitalizing on breaks, ran up a 7-0 halftime lead, then salted away the victory by scoring again late in the third quarter.

Makes Quick Line Thrusts. After a scoreless first quarter in which the green and white completely dominated the offensive action Coach Gale Bullman's charges began a series of quick opening line thrusts that took them six yards away from pay dirt. Here the Bearcats' line tightened and held for downs. John Yurchak kicked out to his own 46 yard line and Gene Huffman on the first play cut off tackle and ran 40 yards to the 6 for a first. The defense led by Hochenauer, Hellerich and Leffingwell held for downs only to see a penalty give the Miners their fifth chance and E. Kawadas split the middle to score. With Alden Williams holding, Bill Wohler kicked the first of his two successful extra points.

Third Quarter Ends Scoring. In the third quarter Howard Bullman completed the day's scoring by passing to End Jim Tietjens from seven yards away.

Maryville had but few opportunities to score; the most heart-breaking of these was Charlie Graham's 30 yard runback of a pass interception. Graham, who was brilliant during most of the afternoon, was operating without the use of his left eye, which he injured in the early moments of the game. With Yurchak in great position to throw the key block that would have sent Chuck into the promised land, Graham, trying to cut inside on his blind side, ran into the tackler.

Once upon a time a queen called her most valiant knights before her and said, "You have all served me well. Each year you have gone forth and brought glory to my empire. Now I wish to bestow upon one of you the highest honor. You must decide among yourselves, by knightly contest, which is most worthy of the title I have to bestow. Therefore, I bid you go joust among yourselves. Let the victor present himself to me at the termination of the melee, and him will I honor more than all the rest."

So the knights went out to joust. They decided that each should meet the others in two types of contests. There was the Knight of Warren. His wore a black and red plume, and right boastfully did it wave in the breezes.

And the Knight of Kirk, with his purple and white shield, rode his charger up and down the tourney place, impatient that the contest be on.

Sir Cape was there, a brilliant red and black pennant dangling from his long lance, a resolute look in his eye.

There was the Knight of the Spring, larger perhaps than all his fellows. His helmet boasted no plume, but a flaming maroon blanket covered the sleek sides of his magnificent white mount.

And last was the Unknown Knight. He seemed younger than the rest. He was a slender lad. His breastplate fit him snugly, and the green and white plume on his helmet reflected a thousand times on his shining shield, bare but for the motto it bore: "The Truth Shall Make You Free." Just before the starting of the melee he galloped to the reviewing stand where he halted in a cloud of dust and romantically saluted the Maid Mary, who was seated there.

And so they met—and after several hours of jousting it was seen that the Unknown Knight, although he had lost one contest to the Knight of Kirk, had evened the count and was winning from all his fellows. Thrice he sent Sir Cape reeling from the saddle. The Knight of Warren was no match for him.

At last he met the giant Knight of the Spring. Three times they charged into one another to no avail. Each selected a new lance. They charged again. This time they were both unseated. The Unknown Knight was up in a flash, but Sir Spring could not rise.

Headless of the thunderous applause, the Unknown Knight rode straight to the reviewing stand. Maid Mary was on her feet. Leaning far out of the saddle, the Unknown Knight clasped her hand, and lightly she sprang into the saddle behind him.

Then to his Queen he rode, the flush of victory upon his cheek. The Queen rose. "You have rightly won—and valiantly, too. Therefore, I bestow upon you the title of 'Champion.' May you ever honor it."

"Sir Champion Knight, you are unknown—yet nowhere. You have brought your lady fair with you. Because I will need you in my realm, I give you yon castle and grounds. It is yours. Name it for your love, and may the Champion always live in the castle of Maryville."

Tennis Tournament Swings Into Finale

Fall Contest Reveals New Promising Contenders For Variety Squad.

By DICK CARROLL

The annual fall tennis tourney was announced by Dr. Frank Grube the tennis coach, and is now in full swing. This year's crop of new students has produced many good players and promises to strengthen the tennis team, which last year won three and lost one.

Since Dr. Grube has had no chance to see any of the players in action it has been difficult for him to seed anyone. However, he did seed two men, Cal Goedders, a freshman from Mason City, Iowa, and Bill Sherman, who couldn't participate because of football.

There are Dark Horses. As in every tourney, though, there are some dark horses and this distinction goes to Hugh McFaddin, of Excelsior Springs, who is already in the semi-finals, losing only four games of twenty-eight.

Climbing out on that proverbial limb, the other semifinalists should be Leland Springer, Cal Goedders, and Jim Laurin. From this point on, anything can and probably will happen.

Challenge Will Come Next Spring. The winner of this tournament will be ranked number three behind last year's letterman, Bud Carmichael, who, incidentally, is fourth in the conference, John Pope and Dick Carroll. The other finalist will be number five and so on through the tourney. Next spring the boys will be able to challenge anyone that is two places up the ladder and if he should win, he would take his opponent's place.

So far in the tourney: George Nathan (in Sherman's place) vs. by, McFaddin defeated Qualls, Springer vs. by, Davis and Doney defaulted, Morrison and Lowe defaulted, Jim Laurin vs. by, Phillips and Lewis defaulted, and Cal Goedders vs. by. In the second round: McFaddin defeated Nathan, Springer vs. by, Laurin vs. by, Goedders vs. by.

It took nine years, but the Bears finally did it! And it was with a 35 point second half that Springfield took a 41-14 victory from Maryville's seemingly apathetic gridders October 14 on the Bearcats' home grounds.

Coach Ryland Milner's Maryville eleven scored early in the first quarter and late in the final frame, but between the two scoring flashes it was all Springfield.

Maryville's first touchdown was set up at the five-minute mark in the first period when Bill Sherman recovered a Springfield fumble on the Springfield 25. Three carries by Chuck Graham and a pass from Burton Richey to George Coulter put the ball on the two, and Graham smashed through for the score.

Ken Reynolds kicked both conversions for Maryville.

Neither team could get rolling again until midway through the second quarter when Bogey Harrison previewed his second half aerial bombardment. Harrison set up the score with a 32-yard pass to Joe Stevens on the Bearcat 11. Harrison then skirted left end for the TD. Paul Mullins kicked all three conversions for Springfield.

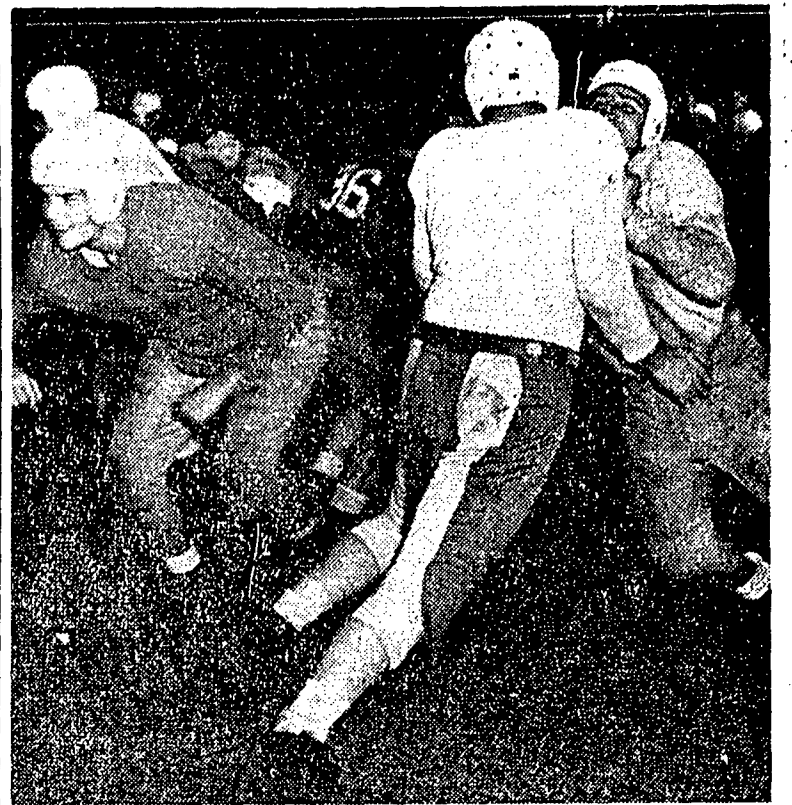

The score stood at 7-7 at halftime, but the roof fell in on Maryville shortly after the second half got underway. Harrison struck quickly against Maryville's ineffectual pass defense, and before the quarter was over he had connected with three touchdown losses, running the score to 28-7. Two of the payoff pitches went to Jim Julian and one to Fred Will. Julian kept the crowd on edge with a series of brilliant catches all afternoon.

The Harrison-Julian combination played off again early in the last quarter. The attack started on the Maryville 36 with Harrison hitting Will for a 12-yard gain and John Batten for 27 more. Julian was in the clear in the end zone as he gathered in the pigskin for the score.

Springfield's reserves racked up the final touchdown when Ted Thomas handed off to J. D. Renick who reeled off 31 yards right down the middle for six points to run the score to 41-7.

Marlin Carey, reserve Bearcat fullback, caught fire with time running out and spearheaded a 69-yard touchdown drive. Carey's bruising last ditch offensive, which netted over 60 yards, was one of the few bright spots in an otherwise listless Bearcat attack. Dean Stuck was instrumental in setting up most of the Carey runs.

Recent games have incited a more intensive drill on the Bearcat offensive play. Coach Ryland Milner has been working steadily on his forward wall to give his squad a more powerful running attack.

Besides the overhead luggage rack there is a 132 cubic feet of storage space in the compartment in the back with the motor. The bus is 34 feet long, 6 feet wide, and 9 1/2 feet high.

The Bearcats used the new bus for the first time on their trip to Rolla.

Justyn L. Graham, Class 1950, is teaching in Central School at Atchison, Kansas, and will be here to enjoy Homecoming activities.

One thing which Coach Goddard is certainly drilling on is to provide a more effective offensive for his squad. In pre-conference warm-ups the Indians defeated Millikin, Illinois, 12-7 and Carbondale, Illinois, 10-0. Warrensburg, however, triumphed over Kirk 20-2, and last week they battled Kaskaskia.

One interesting fact to note will be the result of the contest which the Indians have this Friday with the B team from Missouri. Maryville, in its opening football game, defeated the B's rather easily, 13-0.

THE MAINE CAMPUS

In Orono, Maine, a favorite gathering spot of students at the University of Maine is the Snack Bar in Carnegie Library because it is a cheerful place—full of friendly collegiate atmosphere. And when the gang gathers around, ice-cold Coca-Cola gets the call. For here, as in college haunts everywhere—Coke belongs.
